PONDEROUS ON YULE.—The Marred Herald commenting on the action of Speaker Yule in the recent contested election case in the Assembly, says, in reference to one of his rulings, "for this one act alone Mr.

Speaker Yule deserves to be damned to eternal infamy. A man selected to fill the high and honorable position of Speaker of the Assembly is supposed to sit and act as an impartial judge, to deal fairly between political friends and enemies, and this we believe is the first time in the history of California legislation that the place has been used to promote partisan ends, or propagate political power. All former oc-

enviable distinction to John Yule, of Placer county."

FREIGHT TO AUSTIN.—Mr. Angel, editor of Harrington's Directory of Austin, has furnished the Reville with some data respecting the amount of freight received in that town during the twelve months commencing November 15th, 1864, and ending November 15th, 1865. The total amount of freight, including groceries and provisions, hardware, machinery, lumber, etc., is estimated at 7260 tons. The amount paid for this, estimating the freight paid on merchandise and machinery at ten cents a pound, and on lumber at six cents, is $1,380,

800. This is a large sum to be paid by the small community about Austin for the single item of freight, and gives some idea of the immense commerce of central Nevada.

THE MORMONS have commenced cutting a canal of a magnitude far exceeding any kind of the kind ever undertaken in the Territory before, for the two-fold purpose of irrigation and navigation. Starting near the boundaries of Utah and Salt Lake counties, it will wind its way along the eastern side of the valley, watering the land on its course, including a very considerable tract yet unbroken, and reaching a terminus in the city, a short distance south and west of where the artesian well is being sunk, its entire length being over thirty-two miles.

ability and discretion. The other metro-terribly beaten, while Chandler had one eye closed, and one hand somewhat injured in the encounter. At the time appointed for renewing the contest, the next day, Chan-

Road.—A correspondent of the Oroville Union, in speaking of the road between Oroville and this place via Bidwell's Bar, says:

"No better natural route for a road from valley to mountain, and none over which a road could be more cheaply constructed than this which I recommend, can be found in the State."

2. This road, properly improved, would be the very best (mountain) road in the State; and freighted teams would travel from Oroville to Indian Valley in three days less and to Susanville in four days less time by this than by any other road; as the distance would then be only over sixty-five miles to Indian Valley, and 85 or 90 to Susanville.

3. The cost of surveying, five thousand dollars judiciously expended, would make a very good, and ten thousand a splendid, superior, magnificent road—a road in all respects greatly superior to any other connecting the same points.

To choose the transportation, travel between the two points of the road, although a sufficient reason of itself for the construction of the work, is by no means the only consideration in favor of the undertaking. Let the improvement be promptly and thoroughly made, and among the inevitable results will be the speedy follow-up of the development and cultivation of many thousands of acres of productive but now vacant lands by a multitude of small farmers—of land situated among the foothills, where Health is the boon companion of all, and physicians carry not where are rich soils peculiarly adapted to the production of fruits and vegetables of finest flavor, and best quality, as well as hay, wheat, corn, etc. Excellent wine from the beakers; and two crops of grapes in the same season will grow to maturity—ages matured perfectly the past season. In convenient proximity to the road here proposed is a wide range fraught with untold wealth yet to be developed; and that which is most essential, as a means to render this wealth tributary to a prominent degree to the welfare of Oroville is the immediate construction or reconstruction of the great thoroughfare here recommended, in order to bring the above-mentioned region into general notice, and thereby cause it to be fully occupied, mined, cultivated, and otherwise used in aid of the material progress of Butte county in general, and of Oroville in particular.

MEMORIALS OF FORT SUMNER.—Two fifteen inch solid shot, fired at Fort Sumter by the Union Monitors, and picked up in the Fort since its surrender, have been presented to the city of Lawrence, Mass., by Capt. C.
V. Fox, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, who, formerly a citizen of Lawrence, "has these interesting relics of the rebellion have been placed upon the front tower of the City Hall building, with tablets bearing suitable inscriptions. Mr. Fox, in his correspondence on the subject, says every member of Mr. Lincoln's Cabinet, excepting Postmaster-General Blair, voted to surrender Fort Sumter, but the President determined to hold it if possible. He also says that the shot which of these fifteen-inch shot was picked up in Fort Sumter, one of which occupies a conspicuous place in the British Museum, and another is at Stockholm."

It is an indisputable fact that more disease and suffering is entailed upon children by impure blood in parents than from any other cause. Heads of families owe it to their posterity to see to it that their blood is kept free from all poisonous matter that would have a tendency to produce disease, suffering, and perhaps death to their offspring. Adams' Blood Purifier, prepared by Samuel Adams, San Francisco, is a strictly vegetable preparation and is scientifically proven to be the choicest and most effectious blood purifying remedies known to the vegetable world, and if used according to directions, will restore the blood to its proper condition in a short time.

HOPE, SWEET HOME.—A reader desires to know who wrote the song, Home, Sweet Home. It was written by John Howard Payne, an American actor and dramatist.
He was born in New York, June 9th, 1792, and died in Paris, June 24th, 1852. He was the author of several plays, etc. The song above mentioned was written when he was near dying in an attic in the Palais Royal, Paris. One hundred thousand copies of it were sold in a single year. After a checkered life Mr. Payne died while acting as American Consul at London.

The ride shooting match between Dr.
Pardee and Warren Loud was decided in favor of the former. Dr. Pardee's string of 100 shots measuring 797 inches. Mr. Loud's 90 shots measuring 141 inches. At this point Mr. Loud resigned. The shooting of Dr. Pardee is unprecedented in the history of target shooting. Distance 220 yards.
This was the last of three matches for $2,000 each. Loud won the first one, and Pardee the second and third.

THE KIDNEY LAW.—Senator Pratt, of Sierra county, in a letter to the Sierra Advocate in regard to the Registry Law, says:
"The Senate at all day, today, considering the Registry Bill, as amended by the Judiciary Committee. It passed the Senate this evening by a party vote I believe. The law is a good one, if it can be carried into effect in the mountain counties without too much expense, and without leading to honesty. Though I have supported the bill very cheerfully, I still fear it is something of an experiment outside of the cities and large towns."

WHEREABOUTS OF.—After a day or two delay by storm, says the Oroville Union, the stages from La Porte, Indian Valley, Susanville and Shasta, are making their regular trips to and from Oroville. The cars have not been delayed a day this storm. The ferries are all running, and roads leading to the farming and mining community are fast becoming passable for loaded teams.

EARLY TO BED AND EARLY TO RISE is the way to feel stupid and have red eyes.

THE EIGHT HOUR SYSTEM.

In our last issue, we copied an able article from the February No. of Harper's Monthly Magazine, in relation to this, now, popular movement, and which we prefaced with some observations of our own. We consider it the duty of a journalist to calmly examine all the bearings any important measure, which is calculated to overthrow the established order of things, may have upon the great social compact, and give his opinions in relation to it without regard to its ephemeral popularity or unpopularity; hence, in examining all the bearings this "eight hour system" is likely to have on the people of California, we are forced to the conclusion that it will not redound to the benefit of the working masses of this State, for several reasons, the chief among which is, we have a large Asiatic population, which can be more easily controlled by capital, and which will be employed, in a great measure, to the exclusion of white operatives, who will be unwilling to perform more hours' work in the day than the law requires of them, and will, therefore, seek other fields for their labor, outside the borders of this State. This might not be deleterious to capitalists, but it certainly would be to the strength, permanency and welfare of California.

The poet Goldsmith draws a true picture, when he says—
"If I find the land, to hastening life a prey, Where wealth accumulates, and men decay; Prices and lords may flourish or may fade, A breath can make them, as a breath can make;
But a bold peasantry, their country's pride, When once destroyed, can never be supplied."

And should this law have that effect on California, it will be a sad catastrophe for our young and vigorous State. For whilst the Chinamen may do the work of the laboring whites, they will not add to the permanent wealth or strength of the Pacific Coast. Immigration will be discouraged, the working classes disheartened, and capital, alone, reap the benefit.

The law may, and perhaps will, work well, and beneficially in some instances in the cities among journeymen mechanics, but how will it operate in the extensive mining regions of this State? This is an important question, and one which should demand the serious consideration of every well-wisher of this community. For the mining interest is certainly the most important in this State—and the one of all others which has heretofore, and still does, attract to these shores the industrious, the energetic, and the enterprising immigrants, not only from the older States of our Confederacy, but also from the entire civilized world; and has built up a mighty empire on the Pacific slope in the short space of sixteen years.

THE INSANE OF CALIFORNIA.—It appears from the report of the Directors of the Insane Asylum, that, on September 30th, 1884, there were 681 patients, and during the year ending October 1st, 1885, 298 additional patients were received, making a total of 979 patients under treatment during the year. Of these, 93 were discharged cured, 11 improved, and 4 unimproved; 83 died, and 27 eloped, leaving 633 still in the Asylum. Of these, 463 are males and 170 are females. The per centage of cures is 34, being much less than usual. The number of deaths is the same as last year.

The steamer Visalia met with an accident on Saturday night near Rio Vista, which caused her to sink. She was struck by a gale of wind and collided with a schooner. A plank was torn away from her hull and she filled rapidly with water. She was run ashore a short distance below the wreck of the steamer Nevada. The steamer can be raised and set afloat again with but little cost or loss of time. This steamer we are informed is owned by Captain Shrock, and not by the California Navigation Company.

FOR NEW GRANADA.—About thirty men left this city yesterday, says the Virginia Enterprise, for New Granada. The stages were unable to carry all who wished to leave, and about a dozen men were left over.
Many of those going to these mines are leaving good wages and steady employment.
Seven men yesterday left the foundry and machine shop of Mead & McCone, at Silver City. To-day that firm advertises in the Enterprise for men to fill their places. We hope they may all do well in the far away South.

The ride shooting match between Dr.
Pardee and Warren Loud was decided in favor of the former. Dr. Pardee's string of 100 shots measuring 797 inches. Mr. Loud's 90 shots measuring 141 inches. At this point Mr. Loud resigned. The shooting of
Dr. Pardee is unprecedented in the history of target shooting. Distance 220 yards.
This was the last of three matches for $2,000
each. Loud won the first one, and Pardee
the second and third.

vocate in regard to the Registry Law, says:

RALLY AROUND THE PRESIDENT.—

It is time the Union men of the country—and we use the word Union in no partisan sense—should rally around the President, and let him feel that he can lean securely and confidently upon their strong and patriotic arms.
He needs their support. If he fails in the noble and peaceful and heroic work he has undertaken of reconstructing the lately broken fragments of nationality, revolution in fact and in principle, if not actual war, must necessarily be the certain and calamitous result. Military vice-royalty, power, and corruption must take the place of republican government throughout half the area of the Union. A bloodied and bloody system of courts-martial and gibbeting must usurp the functions of civil jurisprudence throughout the whole Southern States. Power and passion on the one hand will produce sullen-ness and embittered passions on the other; and the country that was lately the scene of sanguinary conflicts and the dissolution of civil war will be retributed with fire and vengeance; while taxation will increase as the poverty of the stricken people shall augment. As the resources of the South should continue to dry up under such a system, the financial necessities of the Government would continue to grow, and, consequently, the mountain wave of debt to be collected back upon the East and West, engulfing the tollowing masses in a common destruction. This would be inevitable if nominal peace should be maintained in this country and peace with foreign nations. But with so enslavement and exhausting a system, could we reasonably hope long to maintain friendly relations with foreign powers? Would not Great Britain soon begin to assume a more belligerent air in reference to the pending difficulties between herself and the United States? Would not the French Emperor take occasion of so radical and fatal a domestic policy on our part to say to his protégé in Mexico, as he did to his Gen. Forey in 1861, that the power and influence of the United States in North America must be checked? And then, under the goadings of vengeance, Russian vengeance, how many ex-Confederate soldiers in the South might spring to arms and welcome with shouts an invading foe that should come promising release from Polish, and Irish and Venetian bondage? Superadded to all these considerations, there would be the danger of a war of races in the South under the system of despotism whose inauguration the overthrow of the President's policy involves. There would be imminent risk of innumerable collisions between the supporters of the victorious and their haters; many of the lowest and the vilest would come to the service, and frequently there is reason to fear it would be black against white and white against black; and a war of mutual extermination might be the consequence, whose horors no tongue can describe.

It is very easy to sneer at any suggestions of this nature as the fancies on both sides of the line used to sneer at the possibility of any such collision between the North and South as subsequently deluged the latter in blood and covered her with a pall of mourning. Their grotesque levity proved nothing, however, but their own want of sagacity or callous hearts. We assert that under the system which is inevitable, if the President's plan be overthrown and colored people be placed in the South, such a future in the South as we have hinted at rather than described would be highly probable, and foreign wars as a natural consequence of it. The growing feelings of nationality and animosity now everywhere observed in all the Southern States could hardly fail to be gradually checked, and more sanguine and intense hatreds between the North and

The Quincy Union.

LOCAL ITEMS.

WILL OPEN.—Coburn & Bro.'s new hotel will be opened in a few days.

FOR THE STATES.—Mr. Geo. B. Elliott, having sold his interest in the Blackhawk mining claims to Geo. Moore, started for the Atlantic States on Tuesday last.

FOR BLACK ROCK.—Several of the citizens of this county intend visiting the Black Rock country during the present month. From all accounts that section is a very rich one.

PETITION.—A petition is being circulated for the establishment of a mail route between the Summit (Beckworth's Pass) and Quincy. Such a route would be a great accommodation to nearly every citizen in the county.

NEW MAGAZINE.—Beadle's Monthly is the name of a new magazine, published in New York City, the second (Feb.) number of which we have just received. It is a magazine which, in our opinion, will soon become a popular one.

INSOLVENT.—Alfred McCargar, formerly of this county, has petitioned the County Court of Butte county for an order, discharging him from his debts and liabilities.

SUPREME COURT.—In the Sacramento Union of the 8th, we find the following in regard to the contested election case in this county:

Knowles vs. Yeates.—Argued by Vanclef for appellant, and Haymond for respondent, and submitted; five days to appellant, and five days to reply.

THE REGISTRY LAW.—We are in favor of the passage of a law to provide for the registration of all legal voters in this State, but if the Solons, assembled at Sacramento, can not draft a bill for that purpose, which will be an improvement on the one passed by the Senate last week, (a copy of which we have received), it would be much more preferable to let the present law governing elections remain as it is.

ARTEMUS WARD.—A full account of the suffocation, by coal gas, or suicide by poison, of Artemus Ward at Worcester, Mass., is going the rounds of the papers. The fact that the dead Artemus is not Artemus of wax-figure notoriety, is gratifying. The live Artemus will make many points out of the "goak." He will read his obituaries with a great deal of relish.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 10.—The Dayton (O.) Journal of yesterday reports that 27 children were drowned in the reservoir at Celina, on Wednesday. They were attending school in the vicinity of the reservoir, and at noon all the scholars but two—twenty-seven in number—went on the ice to slide, when it broke through with them, and the whole party were drowned before help could reach them.

THE schooner Petrel, recently arrived at San Francisco from Manzanillo, brought the Smiley wrecking party from the scene of the wreck of the steamer Golden Gate. There is every reason to believe that they recovered all the treasure that remained where the Golden Gate sunk.

THE VIRGINIA Enterprise says last Wednesday night John Whitney, who has been employed in the Napa Mill, at Galena, Washoe county, committed suicide by blowing his brains out with a pistol. Whitney was from California, where he leaves a family, and was about 30 years of age.

THE Printers' Union of San Francisco do not approve of the attempts now being made, to reduce the number of hours of a day's labor to eight, so far as their business is concerned. They justly conclude that if the hours of labor are lessened, the pay must also be less.

A NEW GRANADA OUTFIT is recommended to the Territorial Enterprise, by one who has been there: "A large and substantial outfit, which is to be packed with provisions. By the time the emigrant has eaten out the provisions he will be ready to be laid in the coffin in their place."

The windows of the ladies' department in the Chicago postoffice are now attended by young ladies. This change was made necessary by the girls, who, when calling for their letters, would persist in lengthened conversations with the gentlemanly clerks with the dark mustaches.

WHAT IS FAME?—The youngest son of the great Patrick Henry died in Floyd county, Virginia, in 1854, in circumstances of extreme destitution. The Legislature of that State was appropriating thousands of dollars on a marble statue of the father at the very time his son was begging his bread.

The following State Legislatures are now in session: Maine, Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Ohio, Kentucky, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Missouri, Iowa, Kansas, Nevada, California, Florida and Tennessee.

In Carson City there is a dancing school conducted on strictly moral principles—"cash in advance and no huggin'."

Mineral Notes.—The San Francisco Chronicle says that the following are the results of the assay of the mineral water from the Hot Springs, California, taken at Lost Creek, Plumas County, California.

NOTICE is hereby given, that at a meeting of the Trustees of said Company, held on the 27th day of January, A. D. 1886, a dividend of thirty-five dollars per share was levied on the capital stock of said Company, payable on the third day of March, A. D. 1886, to Jacob Doncker, Treasurer, at La Porte, Sierra county, California. Any stock upon which said dividend shall remain unpaid on the third day of March, A. D. 1886, will be advertised on that day as delinquent, and unless payment shall be made before, will be sold on the 17th day of March, A. D. 1886, to pay the delinquent assessment, together with costs of advertising and expenses of sale.
